THE COMPLETE GUIDE

VIDEOVISIONS

Creativity is the word of action and the output can be a beautiful vision. Video Visions brings out the hovering creativity in you through video editing skills. The radical message that you tend to convey through your video can be attained by an incredible way of storytelling. Music gives an intense feel to your video to be wholesome. The trending transition editorials that attract this generation, create an exquisite touch to your video.

To participate in the event you should register in Video visions, at www.krizen.in

ROUND 1:

- The first round is an acquaintance round.
- The participants are asked to send a video file that lasts for one minute or under, (only one video, under any one of the topics given).
- The best of the videos from this round will be qualified for the second round.
- The participants who qualify for the second round will be given a participation certificate.
- The participants can submit their videos for the first round via this Google Form.

ROUND 2:

- The theme for the second round will be announced after the results of the first round.
- The participants qualified for the second round “Montage in time” are asked to create a montage video with various transitions required for the given topic.

- The music used for the videos (for both first and second rounds) can be either a song or BGM. EFX audio can also be included.
- The best of the videos with on-point transition, BGM, and screenplay under the given topic will be recognized.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

- The name and access code of the participant must be watermarked at the top right corner of the video.
- The video to be submitted should be in MP4 format only.
- The deadline for submitting the video will be on the next day of the first round.
- The participants submitting their response before the deadline will be given a participation certificate and the best two will be recognized.
- The best 2 participants will be awarded the certification of excellence and merits.
- The participants are asked to submit their videos through Google forms.
