THE COMPLETE GUIDE

MECHANQUIZ

Greetings from Krizen'21!

Hello participants, All of you are most welcome. We are glad to invite you to one of our events, MECHANQUIZ. The instructions to be followed are mentioned below.

First Round:

- The first round contains 50 multiple choice questions which will act as a screening round.
- The questions for this round are mainly from the GATE conceptual questions from basic mechanical components.
- The total duration of this round is 75 minutes. The duration of the quiz is 60 minutes.
- The contestants will be allowed to take the test for 60 minutes, anywhere between the 75 minutes interval.
- In case the time limit exceeds, the answer will be submitted automatically.
- The quiz will be conducted via the HackerEarth portal.
- The link for this round will be sent to the participants' registered email id.
- The questions are assigned in order to test the participants' knowledge in the field of Mechanical engineering.
- The test can be taken only in Desktop/Laptop in full screen mode.
- The top 30 performers from this round will be qualified for the second round.

Second Round:

- The second round contains 30 questions, which are all multiple choice.
- Questions in this round will comprise mainly of simple problems and a few conceptual questions related to Mechanical GATE questions.
- The top 30 contestants from round 1 will be qualified to enter the second round.
- Same as round 1, this round 2 will also have 75 minutes and the contestants will be allowed to take the test for 60 minutes.
- The contestants can log in and take the quiz anytime within that 75 minutes interval.
- But unlike the first round, the timing for this round is split into 120 seconds for each question.
- Once the given time runs out the question will be submitted automatically and the partakers will not be able to attend that specific question anymore.
- The link for this round will be sent to the participants' registered email id.
- The top 2 scorers will receive cash prizes and Merit Certificates.
- The other participants of round two will be awarded Participation Certificates.
